Driftwood bred. We have a nice young 3 year old colt out of her. She has not been used much. Was broke at one time, than sat. Easy keeper. We were told by the vet, it was a 50/50 chance she could carry a foal to term. We have not really looked more into it. She can be a little hard to catch, but just hasn't been messed with a bunch. She is stout and smart.

LOT 32 GRADE MARE
 COLOR: Grey FOALED: 2010? BREED:QH
 OWNER: R. Eliason

She was mouthed and they put her at age 12-14. Gentle. Is broke well but is a little sore. She has had a Chiro do some work on her and that helped a lot. I think with more work she would be a great horse. Could easily be a nice step up kids horse.

REMINDER – ALL horses in the catalogue are guaranteed sound by their owner unless called otherwise in the sale ring.

And all Horses in the Catalog come with a neg. Coggins test so out of state buyers can easily get their health certificate for their trip home.
